DESCRIPTION

The concrete Monobloc TV Bench designed by Lyon Béton floats beautifully above the ground and is specially designed to accommodate your flat screen TV. Characterized by its clean lines, its straightforward geometric configuration, its simplistic qualities, use of concrete as the primary medium, the concrete TV bench takes on a comprehensive raw and modern design. The hollow central compartment visually lightens the piece and also provides a fully functional storage space for your books, any of your routers or other objects. Enhance your living arrangement.
